The Tanzania Forest Conservation Group (TFCG) is a national NGO whose mission is to conserve and restore the biodiversity of globally important forests in Tanzania for the benefit of the present and future generations. The Tanzania Forest Conservation Group in partnership with the Tanzanian Community Forest Conservation Network (MJUMITA) has been awarded a grant from AcT for a project with the goal that: To increase accountability and responsiveness of central and local government to protect the climate and other ecological services that natural forests provide to Tanzanian citizens.

TFCG is seeking applications from qualified women and men for two positions:

Communication and Advocacy Officer – Head Office, Dar es Salaam
The Communication and Advocacy Officer will produce a report summarising the findings of the forest change analyses, the causes of forest loss and the steps taken by stakeholders to address those change. The project will operate at national level across the Tanzanian mainland with a focus on high-potential areas for community-based forest management, including on woodlands in more forested regions such as Iringa, Tanga, Kigoma and Morogoro. Candidates should have a Bachelor degree in subject related to rural development or natural resources management and at least 5 years experience of working as a communication or advocacy officer.

Monitoring and Research Officer – Head Office Dar es Salaam
The Monitoring and Research Officer is responsible for project monitoring and supporting the Project Manager on deforestation mapping for change. The project will operate at national level across the Tanzanian mainland with a focus on high-potential areas for community-based forest management, including on woodlands in more forested regions such as Iringa, Tanga, Kigoma and Morogoro. Candidates should have a degree in a natural resources-related subject; formal training on monitoring or research is an added advantage; and at least 5 years experience in project monitoring, research and communication.

How you can apply
Job descriptions are available at http://www.tfcg.org/careers.html. Qualified candidates should send applications including a detailed CV, covering letter, contact details (including an e-mail address and phone number) and contacts of three professional referees to: personnel@tfcg.or.tz Please specify for which position you are applying. The deadline for applications is 17:00 on 28th January, 2020. Short-listed candidates will be informed of the interview date by 10th February 2020. Applicants who have not received communication by this date should consider their application unsuccessful.